

PEACE AND JUSTICE WEEK

5TH TO 9TH NOVEMBER 7.30pm DAILY

DAILY UPDATE: TUESDAY

News from last night

More than a hundred people packed into Saint Margaret's for the first evening of Peace and Justice Week with international writer and speaker Robert Cohen,

Jewish campaigner for Palestinian human rights. The full programme included an overview of the recent history from Jewish Voice for Peace, Robert's moving address, and time for questions – but the last word was the combined voice of hope of Rami, a Jewish Israeli, and Bassam, a Palestinian Arab, who both lost school-age daughters to the conflict. 'He is my dearest friend and brother', and in their work together for peace they are 'fearless, because the worst thing that could happen already happened.' They became the voice of hope and the inspiration to work for peace.

LUNE VALLEY REFUGEE SPONSORSHIP

Pope Francis has challenged every catholic parish and community to take in a Syrian refugee family. Tonight Peter King explains how the catholic parishes of the Lune Valley have taken up that challenge in cooperation with the UK government to welcome and support a Syrian refugee family here in the Lune Valley – plus Maggie Bruno of Bentham Refugee Support Group, and Anthony Finnerty of Lancaster City of Sanctuary, with news of other work amongst refugees in Yorkshire, Cumbria and Lancashire.

STILL TO COME THIS WEEK – twelve more speakers across three more evenings

Wednesday CHRISTIAN AID and CAFOD with support in every parish and global reach - Arton Medd for Christian Aid and Stephen Garsed for CAFOD present updates on their work in some of the harshest situations around the world.

Thursday CHURCH-SPONSORED WORK in LANCASTER and MORECAMBE
