

PEACE AND JUSTICE WEEK

5TH TO 9TH NOVEMBER 7.30pm DAILY

DAILY UPDATE: THURSDAY

News from last night

CAFOD
Just one world

Christian Aid and Cafod have support in every parish and global reach – connecting local churches here with communities all over the world. Everywhere, they work with local organisations to ensure that the help that is offered reaches those who need it, and responds to practical needs in ways that work in each place.

Stephen Garsed for Cafod and Arton Medd for Christian Aid talked about the work of both organisations, from emergency aid, to long-term support and development work, to lobbying and advocacy.

The over-all impression was of a global faith-based network working for good where the world's most powerful have no interest. It felt almost subversive – like a well-funded, well-organised, highly-motivated, faith-based global network, dedicated to the practical support the most vulnerable, working in the powerless margins of every society on earth. Perhaps this is part of what Jesus meant when he talked about the kingdom of heaven, or the kingdom of God, 'amongst you', here on earth, as an alternative kingdom...

TONIGHT at 7.30pm

in Saint Margaret's Church Hornby

CHURCH-SPONSORED WORK in LANCASTER and MORECAMBE

With Jan Norbury and Clive Scott from Christ Church Night Shelter, Annette Smith from Morecambe Bay Food Bank, Brian Kirtley and Keith Brockbank from Mustard Seed at The Priory, and Susan Seed from Faith Groups in Support of the Homeless – news and insights from the front line of church-sponsored work amongst the most vulnerable in Lancaster and Morecambe

And tomorrow at 7.30pm IN TRANSITION

So many young people are choosing gender transition that it is now affecting virtually every high school in the country. Our panel includes Fr Luiz Ruscillo (head of education for the Diocese of Lancaster), Revd Chris Newlands (Lancaster Priory), Kirsty Allan (Creative Wellbeing) and Dr Lewis Turner, who provides training and support services to Lancaster's schools, colleges and universities. Numbers have been doubling every year, and this is our chance to find out more.
