Friday IN TRANSITION

So many young people are choosing gender transition that it is now affecting virtually every high school in the country - and primary schools as well. Our panel includes Fr Luiz Ruscillo (head of education for the Diocese of Lancaster), Revd Chris Newlands (Lancaster Priory and Church of England General Synod), Ken Wilkinson-Roberts (Lancaster University LGBT faith group), Kirsty Allan (Creative Wellbeing) and Dr Lewis Turner (Lancashire LGBT) who provides training and support services to Lancaster's schools, colleges and universities. Numbers have been doubling every year, and this is our chance to find out more.

"Hornby at Christmas" is a new painting by Hornby artist Chas Jacobs specially commissioned by Saint Margaret's Church

Charity Christmas Cards featuring the image are on sale in church and at The Flower Bank and at Coach House Antiques

The painting itself is being auctioned – all proceeds to church funds. You can bid now, and the auction closes at 10am on Monday 19 November, with the winner announced at midday. You can see photographs of the picture in its frame at these4parishes.co.uk, and you can bid by sending an email to bids@these4parishes.co.uk, with your name and address and telephone number, and the amount you wish to bid. You can bid a definite amount, or alternatively you can specify a maximum bid, in which case bids will be placed automatically on your behalf up to your maximum (and if you win, you only pay the price at which the last rival bidder dropped out). The picture will be on display at Saint Margaret's on 4 and 11 November, and at Chas Jacob's annual exhibition on the ground floor of the Ashton Memorial in Williamson Park LA1 1UX, Saturday 17 and Sunday 18 November, 10.30am to 4pm – free entry

Armistice Centenary Sunday 11 November

10.30am Whittington • 10.30am Arkholme

10.30am Gressingham • 10.55am Hornby

Then during the afternoon there will be special Armistice Centenary displays in all four churches, including photographs, war records, and biographies, for all those named on the First World War memorials – and a special display in Arkholme, which is one of only 54 villages in England and Wales where everyone who served in the Great War returned.

All four churches will be open during the afternoon from 2pm to 4pm, so that people have the opportunity to visit all four displays.

Many families have items passed down from the Great War. Please do bring them along to the morning services (or at 2pm) to add to the displays. All the churches will be locked once everyone has left morning service, and supervised during the afternoon opening (2pm to 4pm) – then locked again afterwards. It would be helpful if you could label your items, and collect them at 4pm.

Could you help supervise the afternoon opening for an hour in your parish, so that the organisers and other supervisors have a chance to visit the other exhibitions?

Please have a word with Liz Allison (Hornby), Bridget Smith (Arkholme), Judith Greenwood (Whittington), or Mary McClements (Gressingham).
