Kathy Paice can take your surplus garden produce (fresh home-grown fruit and veg) directly to the Lancaster City of Sanctuary weekly gathering for Lancaster-based asylum-seekers and refugees every Tuesday. Asylum-seekers in the UK live in hostels on a minimal allowance while their refugee status is assessed. They have very little opportunity to access fresh fruit and vegetables. Bring items to Hornby church for collection, or hand directly to Kathy in Whittington.

Hornby Roof donations and pledges continue to come in and have now reached £17,258 including Gift Aid

Hornby Churchyard Chris and Tony Hatton are taking on overall oversight of the churchyard after many years of sterling service by Graham and Margie Dixon in this role – many thanks to all four of them. One current vacancy is for the once-a-year spring task of looking after the paths: edging, weeding, and spraying for the year. Have a word with Christine or Graham or Margie if you might be able to take this on.
